S.T. & S.C. DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

The 2nd August 2011

No. 26433—PCR-22/1011-SSD—In pursuance to the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 & Para.-42 of the S.T. & S.C. Development Department Resolution No. 24452/SSD, dated the 14th July 2011, the Government after careful consideration, have been pleased to constitute a Selection Board as follows:—

- (i) Chairman, District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) . . . Chairman
- (ii) P. A., I.T.D.A. of the concerned district as nominated by the . . . Member Collector/ P.D., D.R.D.A. in non-I.T.D.A. district.
- (iii) D.W.O. of the concerned district as nominated by the Collector. . . Member-Convenor

2. A panel of retainers will be prepared by the Selection Board under the Chairmanship of the concerned District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) with the P.A., I.T.D.A./P.D., D.R.D.A. and the D.W.O. as nominated by the Collector as member of the Selection Board for this purpose. The panel of Advocates should consist of the Advocates double the number of retainers required for the Legal Aid Cells covered by the concerned district. For example, if numbers of Legal Aid Cells (i.e. 10 retainers) are to be opened, the panel should consist of 20 number of advocates and for each cell thus the panel would be four. The panel shall remain valid for two years.

3. The Selection Board will look into the minimum experience of an advocate to be empanelled which shall be three years standing in the Bar. While preparing the panel, care shall be taken to ensure that the Advocate is sincere in practice and has the ability to handle the citizens of S.T.&S.C. to deliver the goods and an aptitude for social service, especially in the service of the disadvantaged and backward communities. While one of the retainers in each block must belong to either S.C. or S.T. community, the other should be from unreserved category for maintaining a balance and also to deal with cases between member of S.C./S.T. inter se .
